Did you know...

you shouldn’t plant a tree where one was uprooted?

The soil is likely to be nutrient deprived.
The remaining roots leave the young tree without space.
Possible diseases of the previous tree might still linger.

#plantgrowsave